Meditation – Most people believe in the existence of God. That doesn't require much faith. God's existence is fairly obvious. Some believe that God loves them. This requires a bit more faith. Belief in God's love can be very challenging at times. Then there are people who believe that God has always and will always provide for every one of their needs. This requires the greatest faith of all, because it means that we believe that God is completely able and willing to bless us in every situation, even when we die.

Quiet and Personal Confession

Consider this Prayer of Confession:

O God, we believe in You. Please help us with our unbelief. We believe in Your existence, but we continue to commit the sin of not allowing You to be all that You should be in our lives. We believe that You exist, but we quite often stand in the way of Your Lordship and Sovereignty because we want to have those things for ourselves. We believe in Your love for us, but we continue to commit the sin of not loving You in return with all of our heart, soul, mind, and strength. We believe in Your providence, but we continue to commit the sin of not trusting You in the most difficult times, when our faith needs to shine the most. Please forgive us for our lack of faith. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.
