Meditation – Who cares? Jesus walked on water and so did Peter, but who cares? God can, and God has done fantastic things that can only be called miraculous, but who cares? It's not like we're going to be walking across a lake any time soon! Who cares? Of course, the real story is that Peter experienced something incredible as long as he listened to Jesus and as long as he kept his focus completely on Jesus, who cares, for us.

Quiet and Personal Confession

Consider this Prayer of Confession:

O God, You come to us walking on water and we are shocked, because we expect You to abide by our limitations. You call us to get out of the boat to which we hold so desperately in the midst of the storm, but we stay where we are, because we do not want to experience You in a new and powerful way. We can do fantastic things that go far beyond anything that we can imagine if only we would obey Your command, and if only we would keep our focus on You, but we continue to think that the wind and the waves of life are greater than You could ever be. Please forgive us and continue to walk on the water. Please continue to call us out to where You are. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.

Call To Worship

Keith Holmes

Sing to God, sing praises to Him; tell of all of His wonderful works. Glory in His Holy name; let the hearts of those who seek the Lord rejoice.

We come to this Holy place today seeking the Lord. We seek to follow. We seek to learn. We seek to serve and sacrifice and to glorify his Holy name.

Righteousness goes before the Lord and is a path for His steps. God approaches us with mercy and grace and forgiveness.

Jesus has found us and He has recreated us with His love. That is why we worship. Our lives have been made new with what God has done.

Let me hear what the Lord will speak, for I know that the Lord will speak peace to His people. God speaks peace to His faithful.

We turn to Jesus. The salvation that Jesus brings is at hand for those who believe in Him. We rejoice in the blessings that Jesus gives.
