Meditation – Right from the start, the Bible makes it very clear that God has a formidable enemy. This enemy is Satan, and he is very dedicated to the goal of upsetting and destroying the relationship that God has with His people. The Psalms give us language for our prayers, and they mention enemies many times. When Jesus comes, He opposes Satan directly and cautions us about Satan's power. All of this reveals to us that we live our lives every day in a very dangerous place.

Quiet and Personal Confession

Consider this Prayer of Confession:

O God, with this prayer, we stop to consider our assumptions. We confess that we have lived under certain assumptions that are not true. We have therefore lived under the authority of lies that we have manufactured. We have sought to live apart from Your Word, and apart from Your authority, because we have wanted to define and limit our relationship with You according to our own terms, and in honor of our great desire for comfort and ease. We have told ourselves that we have given enough in honor of You, when we know in our hearts that it is not possible to reach that goal. We have assumed that we have nothing left to learn, when we know that we have only begun to follow where You lead. Please forgive us. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.

Call To Worship

Keith Holmes

Happy are those whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.
Happy are those to whom the Lord imputes no iniquity.

In the blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, we are forgiven of our sin.

This is a miracle of God’s mercy and grace. We kneel before our Lord in true humility.

While I kept silence, my body wasted away through my groaning all day long. Then I confessed my sin to God, and the Lord forgave my guilt.

This is how we begin this Holy Season of Lent; by confessing our sin and by being set free unto full and joyful relationship with God.

Let all who are faithful offer prayer to God, at a time of distress. Be glad in the Lord and rejoice and shout for joy, all of you who have been made upright in heart.

This is a season of humble confession, but it is also a time of rejoicing and praise. We take comfort in the certainty of the blessings that only Jesus brings.
