Meditation – What are you waiting for? We spend an enormous amount of our time, waiting. We wait for things that we really want and really need. If it isn't something that we want or need, we won't wait for it; we'll find something else to do. How much we want something or need something determines whether or not waiting for it is a waste of our time. The Bible makes it clear that we are to wait for God, but what are you waiting for God to do?

Quiet and Personal Confession

Consider this Prayer of Confession:

O God, You have formed us and You have numbered our days. You know all of our thoughts, and You are well acquainted with all of our ways, but we confess that we quite often conveniently forget that You are as close to us as the Bible declares. We know that You have exhausted all mercy and grace and love in order for us to be forgiven and to adopt us into Your family, but we confess that we still resist the identity of being Your child and of belonging to You. We still remember when You came and found us and when You revealed the truth of Your glorious Kingdom to us, but we confess that we have lived as if we deserve still more. Please forgive us. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.

Call To Worship

Keith Holmes

God has searched us and God knows us. God discerns our thoughts and searches out our path. God is acquainted with all of our ways.

Even before a word is on my tongue, O Lord, you know it completely. God hems me in, behind and before. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me.

Where can I go from God's Spirit? Where can I flee from God's presence? If I ascend to Heaven, God is there. If I make my bed in Sheol, God is there.

If I tell myself that the darkness shall cover me, even the darkness is not dark to the Lord. The night is as bright as the day.

It was God who knit me together. I praise God, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Wonderful are Your works! That I know, very well.

In Your book, all of my days were written. How weighty are thoughts, O God! I come to the end, and I am still with You.
