

DUNDEE
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

May 15, 2022

We're grateful for Your presence today!

We believe our purpose is to love God and share Jesus Christ. We strive to be a congregation in which all feel welcomed and find opportunities to engage and grow. Wherever You are in Your journey with God, we want You to know You are welcome here.

We are pleased to offer nursery care for children 0-3 years old at every service.

Chancel flowers are given by Becky Means in honor of the baptism of Brooks Daniel Waggoner

CELEBRATION SUNDAY

Sunday, May 22nd is a big day at Dundee Presbyterian Church. There is a single service at 10:00 a.m. followed by brunch. On that morning, we will recognize and celebrate our graduates and the confirmation class as well as enjoy fellowship, fun and food together – there will be games and a bounce house for the children.

Meditation – Part of the fun of movies and books is not knowing the ending. Even though you can spoil the ending by finding out what happens in the end, the story is designed to reveal the ending in a certain time and in a certain way. Through the Bible, we know so much about how our story ends. There is still so much that remains a mystery, but there is also the assurance of the victory of Jesus Christ. In this, there is joy and there is peace.

Quiet and Personal Confession

Consider this Prayer of Confession:

O God, we know that You have commanded us to love others just as You have loved us, but we confess that we have been happy to receive the gifts that You give, while also being reluctant to share them as fully as You wish. We have heard You say that the world will know us by our love, but we have blended into the crowd, rather than risk standing out by standing with You. We know that You are above all things, but somehow, we quite often pray and live as if You are somewhere slightly below us. We know that You have already forgiven us in the blood of Jesus, but with this confession, we long to show You our faith and appreciation for all that You have done to set us free. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.
