Meditation – At the end of his life, the Apostle Paul told Timothy that he had fought the good fight. He rejoiced in the thought that he had finished the race and had kept the faith. Paul had gone from being a man who was opposed to Jesus Christ to one who expressed his faith and love for Jesus Christ by exhausting himself in service of the Lord. He was at peace with the end of his life because he had sacrificed the best gifts that he had in honor of the true King.

Call To Worship

How lovely is the dwelling place of the Lord! My soul longs, indeed, it faints for the courts of the Lord. My heart sings for joy to the Living God.

Happy are those who live in the house of the Lord, ever singing God's praise! Happy are those whose strength is in God.

One day in the House of the Lord is better than a thousand elsewhere. It is better to be a doorkeeper in the House of the Lord than to be anywhere else.

We are humbled by what God has done. We are humbled by what God has given to us. God has filled us with good things.

By His mercy and by His grace, God has brought us into the Promised Land. Let us give unto God the first and best fruit of what we have received.

We give with great joy because of what God has done for us.

We give because God is always with us. We give because God's love never ends.

CONFESSION AND FELLOWSHIP

Call to Confession

Rev. J.D. Georlett

Unison Prayer of Confession

O God, have mercy on us, for we have sinned against You. Instead of offering ourselves honestly to You, and depending completely upon Your love, we have put our trust in our own evaluation for comfort and peace. We have quite often ignored our need of Your grace, by thinking of ourselves as better than others. We have made the mistake of assuming that only certain people need to be forgiven, and that our own sins are not nearly as serious as they really are. We have thought of salvation as something that we deserve to receive from You, and we have therefore taken for granted the great cost and the great sacrifice that Jesus paid on our behalf. Please forgive us. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.
