

Sermon 11/14/21

“The End of the Beginning”

Bible Readings:

Daniel 12:1-3

Mark 13: 1-8

- Re-Read the Scripture for this week.
- What is your favorite kind of ending?
 - Happily Ever After?
 - A Twist Ending?
 - A Cliffhanger?
- What have you believed about Jesus’ return throughout your life?
 - Did it make you happy?
 - Did it make you sad?
 - Did it make you worried?
- Do you live one day at a time or do you try to get control of everything?
- Do you trust in Jesus? Are you resting in the knowledge that He holds the end of things in His hands?
 - Why or why not?
- JD talked about the disciples pointing at the temple with the attitude of “Look at what we have done?”
 - Do you do that?
 - What do you point at and say “look at what I/we did?”
- Is your name in the Book of Life?
 - Do you think it’s up to you to write your own name in that book?
 - Does it make sense that only Jesus can write your name in the book?
 - Why or why not?
 - What can we do to ensure others realize that only Jesus, through His grace, writes our names.
 - How do we rejoice in that knowledge ourselves?
