

Human

2 Samuel 11:1-3

Romans 7:15-25a

What is one of the hardest temptations you find to resist?

JD said that humans are a mess and can't get out of our own way. Which is fairly true. We seem to want to do good but end up doing what we don't want to do.

- How does that make you feel?
- Reread the passage.
 - Do you see yourself in those passages?

We like to skip over passages like Romans 7. Because we want to get to the good parts and skip the bad parts. We want to get to chapter 8, and all the good stuff that God promises... But God doesn't skip the bad parts. He knows our bad parts and has seen everything we are and still offers Grace and Love.

- What is your reaction to that?
- What will you do about it?

David failed because he is human and sinful. He fell into temptation and sin. Temptation in itself isn't bad or "wrong" or strange because it is a part of what it's like to be human. Our world is broken, and full of temptations.

- How can we fight against this?
- How do we help one another?

One of JD's favorite memes is: "When God called you, He factored in your stupidity."

- How do you interpret that?
- Does it make you feel good?

What will you do with this week's sermon?
