Meditation – Once upon a time...that's how some of the most familiar stories begin. These stories quite often conclude with the declaration that everyone lived happily ever after. We like these kinds of stories. They make us feel good, but we all know that they aren't true. They're cute and entertaining, but not a whole lot more than that. So, how about the story of this day? Once upon a time, Jesus conquered death, and they all lived...forever in Paradise!

Jesus Christ is Risen!

He is Risen indeed!

Jesus Christ is Risen!

He is Risen indeed!

The tomb is empty! I have seen the Lord! He is alive!

Our sin is forgiven, and all things are made new!

Jesus is the Good Shepherd! He is the Way and the Truth and the Life.

Jesus is the Bread of life! He is the Light of the world!

Death is defeated, and Satan's power over us has been broken!

It is for freedom that Christ has set us free!

Jesus is the Lamb of God who reigns forevermore!

Now we carry His name in the world. We will live for His honor and glory.

CONFESSION AND FELLOWSHIP

Call to Confession Rev. J.D. Georlett

Unison Prayer of Confession

O God, we are here this morning because we know that You have done something very special for us. We know that we need to be forgiven, and that You have died in our place so that we may be free. We know that You have blessed us, far beyond what we could ever deserve. We should be meek and humble before You, but we often repay You with arrogance and apathy. We should live a life of joyful and sacrificial service, but we quite often seek something that is far more comfortable than that. We should love You with all of our heart, soul, mind, and strength, but we are already devoted to far lesser things. Please forgive us, and please renew a right Spirit within us. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.
