Meditation – The New Testament begins by telling us the story of Jesus Christ, while He was with us in the flesh. It then tells us about His suffering, and death, and resurrection. Then, the rest of the New Testament takes us on a walk with the Holy Spirit, as Christian faith is brought into the world. As the Gospel spreads, it encounters many different reactions. It is accepted and it is rejected, and then it arrives at our door. We are now part of this great journey.

Quiet and Personal Confession

Consider this Prayer of Confession:

O God, we confess that we are easily confused by what You are doing and by what You have done. We hear that You are alive and that You reign supreme, but we find it hard to believe that You are greater than the powers of our world. We have heard that You are Lord and that You are the Messiah, but we are slow to believe what You have proven, and so we act as if Your Word cannot be trusted. You come and meet us right where we are, but we are still blinded by our stubborn fears, and so we don't recognize You, even as You are closer than our next heartbeat. You have achieved Your mission. You have overcome the world with mercy and grace and we act as if there is still more for You to do. Please forgive us. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.

Call To Worship

Keith Holmes

I love the Lord, because He has heard my voice and my supplications. Because He inclined His ear to me, therefore I will call on Him as long as I live.

I talk with God. I talk with the creator of the universe. I bow down before the Lord and He hears my voice. Jesus is most gracious and kind.

The snares of death encompassed me. I suffered distress and anguish. Then I called on the name of the Lord: "O Lord, save my life!"

Jesus Christ saved me by means of His own sacrifice. I am forgiven because Jesus died for me. Jesus has answered my most important prayer.

What shall I return to the Lord for all that He has done for me? What shall I give to the Lord to express my gratitude for His love and care?

I will lift up the cup of salvation. I will call on the name of the Lord. I will pay my vows in the presence of His people. I will serve God with all of my heart.
