Meditation – Who invented the parade? It's not clear when the first parade was held, where it was, or why. What is known is that the history of parades is thousands of years old and that just about every culture that has ever been has examples of parades to celebrate and remember everything under the sun. Of all the reasons to have a parade, the moment when God comes into town is far above all others. That's what we celebrate today, with palm branches, and humble gratitude.

Quiet and Personal Confession

Consider this Prayer of Confession:

O God, we confess that, like the people who gathered on the street to welcome You on Palm Sunday, we have great expectations of what You will do and what You will be. Like them, we say the right things and we pay homage to You with grand gestures. Yet, when You stand trial, we have failed to stand up to be counted with You. When we find out that Your Kingdom is not of this world, we are quick to look for one that appears to be far greater. When You carry the cross up that hill, we know that we are to take up our own and follow You, but we feel entitled to a much easier path. In all of these ways and more, we prove that we have still not fully accepted the life to which You call us. Please forgive us. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.

Call To Worship Keith Holmes

Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good; His steadfast love endures forever! This is the day that the Lord has made! Let us rejoice and be glad in it!

We happily join the crowd in shouting the praise of our Lord and Savior! We joyfully welcome Jesus into town and into our lives.

The stone that the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone. This is the Lord’s doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes.

The streets of Palm Sunday quickly become the streets of Good Friday. Jesus will carry the cross of our shame and will conquer the power of death.

Blessed is the One who comes in the name of the Lord! God has given us light. Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good; His steadfast love endures forever!

Those who walked in darkness have indeed seen a great light.

We will give thanks to the Lord with our best gifts and with songs of praise.
