Meditation – “We know love by this, that He laid down His life for us—and we ought to lay down our lives for one another. How does God’s love abide in anyone who has the world’s goods, and sees a brother or sister in need and yet refuses to help? Little children, let us love, not in word or speech, but in truth and action. And by this, we will know that we are from the truth and will reassure our hearts before Him.” – 1 John 3:16-19

O God, You are the Good Shepherd. You have made me to lie down in green pastures, but I have not given You the credit that You deserve for keeping me safe and secure, and for bringing me into Your land of abundance. You have restored my soul. You have led me in right paths, but I have doubted that I can possibly be forgiven and made new by Your mercy and grace. You have been with me through the darkest valleys, but I have questioned Your ability, when I should rejoice in Your protection. You have blessed me, even when I have been surrounded by enemies, but I have not thought about how essential You are. Please forgive my lack of gratitude. In Jesus’ name we pray, Amen.

Call To Worship

Come, let us truly worship the Lord, Jesus Christ! Let us all lift up our hearts and our voices in honor of Him!

Jesus has been my shepherd, long before I was even aware of His presence. He protected and guided me through the darkest valleys.

With what can we possibly honor our Lord and Savior? How can the sheep possibly pay homage to the Good Shepherd?

We will love, not just in speech, but in truth and action. We will worship the Lord by the way that we live in relation to our brothers and sisters.

It is only right for all of us to give honor and praise to the One who has given His life for our sake. We are forgiven because of His sacrifice.

The gift of life is a gift from Him. It is a gift that is provided by Him, and blessed by Him. In Jesus there is life to the full.
