Meditation – God can do what we think is impossible. In the Bible, God proves this, over and over again, and yet, even those who witnessed God do several impossible things, are quite often completely shocked when God does it one more time. This can be attributed to the fact that we are convinced that the only thing that can ever happen in our lives is something that we can understand. Thanks be to God! There's more than that!

Quiet and Personal Confession

Consider this Prayer of Confession:

O God, You have called us to be fed and nourished by You, but we have settled for bread that does not satisfy. You have called us into the abundance that only You provide, but we have chosen to assume that You are not able to do more than we can do on our own. You have called us to bring to You whatever we have, no matter how humble it may be, but we have ordered You to send away our difficulties and challenges. We have expected You to bring us into situations that are easily within our command and understanding, instead of rejoicing in the miraculous healing that only You provide. Please forgive us for expecting You to stay within our limitations. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.

Call To Worship

Rev. J.D. Georlett

Come and worship the Lord Jesus Christ! He is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love.

Even though we have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God, we have been welcomed by God with grace and forgiveness.

The Lord is just in all of His ways. The Lord is kind in all of His doings. The Lord is near to all who call on Him in truth.

In Jesus Christ alone, the just requirement of the law has been fulfilled. Jesus has suffered for our transgressions and has set us free.

God fulfills the desire of all who fear Him. God hears their cry and saves them. We shall see the face of the Lord in righteousness.

My mouth will speak the praise of the Lord. I will join with the angels in singing of the amazing grace of the Lord today, and for eternity.
