10 a.m. WORSHIP

Meditation – In the Bible, there are several moments when people gathered in large numbers. The books of Nehemiah and Ezra tell the story of a lesser-known moment when the people of God returned home to Jerusalem and out of exile. They gathered and listened for the Word of God. They gathered to consider how they could come together again as one people with God. That's exactly what we seek to do every single Sunday when we gather.

Amazing Grace (My Chains Are Gone)

Quiet and Personal Confession

Consider this Prayer of Confession

O God, You have said that if one part of the body suffers, then all suffer with it, and if one is honored, then all should rejoice with it. Yet we have chosen instead to separate ourselves from the joy and pain of others, as if it has little to do with us. We have joined Cain in the assumption that we are not our brother's keeper. We have judged others harshly, under the assumption that we are acting on Your behalf. We have failed to see that we are one. We have failed to see that, in our love for You, we are one with people who are very different than we are. Please forgive us for sinning against You when we have sinned against Your people. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.
