Meditation – When our kids or grandkids have success in something, we celebrate it. Of course, we are quick to remember that it is a great achievement for their level of knowledge and expertise. We know that as they gain maturity, they will be able and even expected to do even greater things. They won't stay at the level they are right now. Still, what they achieve is worthy of praise. God is Almighty and incomparable in every way and has done the greatest things of all.

Quiet and Personal Confession

Consider this Prayer of Confession:

O God, epiphany happens when You reveal Your works to us, and we have seen Your glory in so many ways, and in so many places. The beauty and perfection of creation testifies to Your brilliance, but we confess that we have failed to praise You fully for the world that You have allowed us to inhabit. You have created human beings in Your image, but we confess that we have not loved or forgiven or helped our brothers and sisters nearly as well as You have taken care of us. You have come into our world, and You have forgiven us in Your own blood. Through Jesus Christ, we see that Your will is to love us and to give us new life, but we confess that we often fail to celebrate Your amazing grace. Please forgive us. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Call To Worship

Arise! Shine! For Your light has come, and the glory of the Lord has risen upon You. The Lord is with us, and His glory has appeared.

The nations have come to God's light, and kings have come to the brightness of the dawn of God. The baby Jesus brings resurrection life.

The Wisemen followed the star and arrived in Bethlehem. They answered the silent and beautiful calling of God to come and see what God had done.

Upon seeing the face of Jesus, the Wisemen were filled with joy. They lived a new life simply because of who Jesus is.

Through Jesus, God has rescued us from sin because nothing else could. God found us when we didn't even know that we were lost.

Like the Wisemen, we bow down and we worship our Lord and Savior. Jesus does not give as the world gives. Jesus is mercy and love and grace.
