Meditation – Some areas of study are so complex that they take years to master. Even masters of the law, of medicine, of economics, of science, and of various forms of art will tell you that it is impossible for anyone to ever get to the point where they fully understand every aspect of that area of study. This is how it is with the subject of God's blessing. We come to Jesus for instruction on the matter, and we are greatly surprised by what we hear. We then spend a lifetime learning it means to be blessed by the Lord. It is always so very different than what we want it to be.

Quiet and Personal Confession

Consider this Prayer of Confession:

O God, who may abide in your tent? Who may dwell on your Holy hill? It is by your grace that we have been saved. We know that we have relationship with you because you have chosen to bless us with mercy and love, but we quickly forget the price that you have paid to set us free. We had to be forgiven and cleansed of our sin in order to have the freedom to come into your presence. We needed grace from you that we could not produce on our own, and you gave it to us, but we have wearied you, by thinking that you were obligated to bless us in this way. We must honor you, by following you, but we continue to seek an easier, less demanding way. Please forgive us for taking you for granted. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.

Call To Worship

In this life, we will quite often find ourselves to be poor in Spirit. We will quite often feel as if our strength is gone. We will feel impoverished and alone.

Jesus declares that in that moment, we are blessed, because ours is the Kingdom that only He brings. The poor in Spirit know how beautiful God’s Kingdom is.

Jesus says that we are blessed when we mourn, and that we are blessed when we are meek, and that we are blessed when we hunger and thirst for righteousness.

We will be merciful. We will be pure in heart, and we will be peacemakers, because we are God’s children, and because we long to see God.

Our Lord Jesus was reviled and He was persecuted for righteousness’ sake. Jesus created a narrow path of victory, and He calls us to follow Him.

We are blessed by what Jesus has done for us. We are blessed when we live in honor of Him. We rejoice in the difficult path of faith and sacrifice.
