Mission Partner Focus – Hope for the Hopeless

This is a newly formed, Christian-based, higher education program for those in prison which focuses on changing the life trajectory of those incarcerated — improving the safety and security of our communities, and expanding the kingdom of God on earth.

Hope to the Hopeless looks to change the usual trajectory of almost 80% of prisoners who will return to prison by offering classes in Bible studies. We have the opportunity to help to transform the life trajectories of those in prison and improve their success in remaining free upon release! Education, the opportunity for higher education, can be that difference between a return to prison or a life of freedom in Christ.

Meditation – God has said that His ways are not our ways. Jesus said to His disciples that He does not give to us in the same way that the world gives. Yet we still so strongly expect God to act in ways with which we are familiar, that we are somehow shocked when He doesn't. If we are surprised by the way that God does things, it's because we haven't listened. If we are disappointed, it's because we've forgotten how much greater God is than we are.

Call To Worship

Jesus is the head of the body, the Church; He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead. In Him, the fullness of God was pleased to dwell.

Jesus is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. He Himself is before all things and in Him, all things hold together.

Through Jesus Christ, God was pleased to reconcile Himself to all things, by making peace through the blood of His cross

I will thank you forever, Lord Jesus, because of what you have done. In the presence of the faithful, I will proclaim your name, for it is good.

In Him, all things in Heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible—all things have been created through Him and for Him.

I am like a green olive tree in the House of God, abundant with life. I trust in the steadfast love of God forever and ever.

CONFESSION AND FELLOWSHIP

Call to Confession

Rev. J.D. Georlett

Unison Prayer of Confession

O God, it is an incredible honor and privilege to be counted with You. It is remarkable to think that You have chosen to take on human form and come to where we are, but we know that You have done this, and we celebrate Your amazing grace. Yet, we confess that we have not invited You to be completely where we are. We have failed to welcome You, by not offering to You the proper attention. We have failed to pay full homage to You, because we continue to make minimal offerings of prayer and praise and worship and service. We give You inferior gifts, in the name of giving our most excellent gifts to all that distracts us. Please forgive us and renew a proper Spirit within us. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.
