Meditation – Isaac is a very quiet character from the Old Testament. With many other, more familiar names occupying other pages of Scripture, Isaac seems to be less important, but in order to understand and appreciate Isaac, you have to recognize what he knew. His birth was a miracle and his life was spared by the intervention of God, who gave a sacrifice that took his place. It's what Isaac knew about his life that was spectacular. He was the very first person in history to know what we are supposed to know about ourselves.

Quiet and Personal Confession

Consider this Prayer of Confession:

O God, as we follow You, we quite often wonder how long it will be before we get to where we are going. Along the way, we get scared and distracted and careless. As we journey on, we forget that You are with us. We forget that You are leading us and protecting us. We forget that You are the One who is providing for our every need. As we go forward with You, we begin to think that we are not making any progress at all. We assume that we are all alone. Sometimes we even tell ourselves that You have given up on us, because we are just too sinful for You to forgive us and love us. In all of these ways, we deny Your great faithfulness. Please forgive us. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.

Call To Worship

Keith Holmes

I will sing of Your steadfast love, O Lord, forever; with my mouth, I will proclaim Your faithfulness to all generations.

We have reason to sing for joy because we are saved by God's mercy and grace. Thanks be to God, in Jesus Christ, we have been set free!

When God tested him, Abraham said, "Here I am!" Abraham never forgot that he was God's servant. Abraham never stopped trusting the Lord.

The way of the Lord is not easy. It is not comfortable, but Jesus Christ is our shepherd, and we will follow where He leads.

Whoever welcomes a disciple of Jesus, welcomes Jesus Himself. We are to welcome the Word of God and the one who proclaims it.

We welcome the Word of God and the revelation of the Holy Spirit. We welcome the change and the growth that they bring.
