

DUNDEE
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

March 5, 2023 – The Second Sunday of Lent

We're grateful for your presence today!

We believe our purpose is to love God and share Jesus Christ. We strive to be a congregation in which all feel welcomed and find opportunities to engage and grow. Wherever you are in your journey with God, we want you to know you are welcome here.

We are pleased to offer nursery care for children 0-3 years old at every service.

Easter Egg Hunt Candy Donations

Candy is needed for the Easter Egg Hunt to be held on Saturday, April 8th.

Please bring bags of individually wrapped, small candy and put the candy into the labeled boxes in the church administrative office or in the narthex.

Koinonia Lenten Study

Starting on Wednesday, March 1st and continuing every Wednesday during Lent, we will be viewing and discussing the movie, "The Passion of the Christ." This film is rated "R" because of some violent content. We will begin each night in the Dining Room at 6:30 P.M. If you are watching on-line, you may join the discussion at 7. We hope that you will join us as Pastor J.D. leads us through this study of the last hours of the life of Jesus Christ.

2023 Lenten Devotionals

With the start of the Season of Lent, you are encouraged to deepen your Lenten journey with devotional booklets. The devotionals will be available online for download. Limited copies are available at the church. Access the weekly pdf files using the QR code at the right, or find the link to the online booklet on the dpcomaha.org home page.

Meditation – How can this be? That’s what the Virgin Mary asked the Angel, Gabriel, after he told her that she would become pregnant by the Holy Spirit and give birth to the Messiah. Nicodemus asked the same question of Jesus after Jesus told Nicodemus that no one could see the Kingdom of God without being born from above. When you think about it, it makes sense that the things of God would be beyond our understanding. In other words, it makes sense that it doesn’t make sense.

Quiet and Personal Confession

Consider this Prayer of Confession:

O God, we are finally ready to give our faith to You. We have been keeping it to ourselves. We’ve been trying to make it perfect before we give it to You. We confess that we will never reach that goal. We will never be able to offer perfect faith to You of our own effort and design. So, we give to You what we have. We confess that it is a broken and damaged and weak faith. It is a faith that is susceptible to temptation and vulnerable to attack. Our faith is starved for the Word of God because we quite often avoid drinking from that nourishing stream. The faith that we give to You today is in need of repair and rejuvenation. As we give this faith to You, please make it stronger and better than it has ever been. In Jesus’ name we pray, Amen.

Call To Worship Keith Holmes

When we look to the future, we quite often see nothing but obstacles and challenges in our way, and we wonder who will help us.

God is the Creator of Heaven and earth. Everything in the universe belongs to the Lord. He is my help. He is my shepherd, and my strength.

The Lord does not fail. The Lord does not grow tired. He does not slumber or sleep. He will not let your foot be moved. God is your protector.

The Lord is my keeper. God provides for me, even though I am in constant need. The Lord provides for me in ways that I cannot do on my own.

The sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night. The Lord will keep you from all evil; He will keep your life.

As I look to the future, I see many obstacles and challenges, but I know that the Lord will keep all of my movements from this time on and forevermore.
