Meditation – A covenant is an agreement between parties. It outlines rights and freedoms and expectations. A covenant can be made between equals, or a greater and more powerful entity can offer a covenant to one who is less. The Bible is very much about covenant, and we can look back on that history, analyzing only the covenants themselves, or we can go deeper, and ponder the relationship and faith that these covenants assume.

Quiet and Personal Confession

Consider this Prayer of Confession:

O God, have mercy on me, according to Your steadfast love; according to Your abundant mercy, blot out my transgressions. Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin. For I know my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me. Against You, You alone, have I sinned, and have done what is evil in Your sight, so that You are justified in Your sentence, and blameless when You pass judgement. Indeed, I was born guilty. Purge me, and I shall be clean. Hide Your face from my sins, and blot out all of my iniquities. Create in me a clean heart, O God, and put a new and right Spirit within me, and restore the joy of Your salvation. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen. – Psalm 51

Call To Worship

God says, "This is the covenant that I will make with my people; I will write my law on their hearts. I will be their God, and they shall be my people"

With my whole heart, I seek You; do not let me stray from Your commandments. Teach me how to love as You have loved.

Jesus says, "Whoever serves Me, must follow Me and where I am, there will My servant be also. Let us remain close to the Good Shepherd.

I delight in the way of the Lord. I treasure the Word of the Lord in my heart. I will meditate on Your precepts, and I will fix my eyes on Your ways.

Jesus says, "Now is the judgement of this world; now the ruler of this world will be driven out. I will draw all people to Myself."

We are drawn to the cross where our Lord was crucified for our sake. We are drawn to the sacrifice that He has made on our behalf.
