Dundee One Great Hour of Sharing

This year marks the 75th anniversary of Dundee's One Great Hour of Sharing – the single largest way Presbyterians join together to share God's love with our neighbors in need around the world. On Palm Sunday and Easter, special envelopes will be available throughout the church to make an offering during worship services to the Presbyterian Disaster Assistance, Growing Food Security and Self-Development of People programs. Your gift will help restore hope, rebuild dreams and empower communities to create a world that reflects God's love. It provides an opportunity to express our thanks for all that God gives us and share our blessings with others.

You shall be called repairers of the breach. – Isaiah 58

Meditation – People celebrate all kinds of wonderful accomplishments and events. Christians have the duty of promoting a rather strange celebration, compared to all others. We celebrate the price that Jesus has paid to set us free. This is a celebration that is very loud and joyful today, yet, as we consider the price that Jesus will pay on our behalf, perhaps we should also celebrate very quietly, with genuine, humble gratitude.

Quiet and Personal Confession

Consider this Prayer of Confession:

O God, we confess that we are attracted to spectacular things, and so we miss much of what You do. We feel entitled to be the ones who define what is admirable and beautiful and successful, and so we overlook the true beauty of service and sacrifice. What You have done seems strange over and against everything else that we usually celebrate and adore. You call us to come along side You and wash the feet of others, but we seek out opportunities with far more glorious returns. You call us to take up our cross and follow You, but we follow the crowds toward less demanding tasks. Please forgive us for expecting You to be what You are not. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.

Call To Worship

Even though He was in the form of God, our Lord Jesus emptied Himself, taking the form of a slave and taught us the way of life.

Jesus did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited. He was obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.

Jesus begins this week humble and riding on a donkey. He will suffer and He will die. On the third day, He will rise and sit at the right hand of the Father.

The stone that the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone. This is the Lord's doing and it is marvelous in our eyes.

Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good. His steadfast love endures forever. This is the day that the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it.

Hosanna in the Highest! Blessed is the One who comes in the name of the Lord! We seek to bless Jesus with our worship and praise.
