Meditation

What is at the heart of what you believe about God? Could you clearly articulate what is the foundation of your faith? Even if we don't believe in God, we believe something about God and what we believe directly affects the way that we live and the choices that we make. No matter what, your faith, or lack of it, says more about you than anything else ever will. It's a good idea, then, to get to the heart of the matter, right?

Call to Worship

Jesus is the Good Shepherd. Our Lord leads us with grace and mercy and love. The Good Shepherd tenderly cares for his sheep.

We are the sheep of God's pasture. We look to God to feed us, to protect us and to teach us the way of righteousness.

Jesus came to seek and to save the lost. Jesus has come to bring us back from the sins and the rebellion that has caused us to go astray.

We have experienced loss and we have been lost. We rejoice in knowing that Jesus finds us and leads us home.

In the heart of our Lord, we have great value. Jesus longs for us to be close to him.

We worship Jesus because we were lost and now we are found. We worship our Lord because we were blind and now we see.

Invocation

Hymn of Praise My Lord! What a Morning (Hymn 279)

Confession and Fellowship

Call to Confession Song of Confession (See insert)

Unison Prayer of Confession

O God, we confess that we have believed in you, but that we have not bothered to take the time to learn all that we can about you. Our personal theology has become a fragile combination of what feels good and what the world around us will accept. We don't know you even while we have spent much of our energy convincing ourselves that we do. We confess that we need you to teach us. We need you to take us on as your students. We need you to cleanse us of what is false and fill us with what is true. Bless us as we seek to follow and serve you. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.

Silent Prayers of Confession

Prayer of the People of God

The Morning Prayer & The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,

Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come,

Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation,

But deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,

And the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
