Communion Prayer & The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
And the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Meditation

Who do we say that Jesus is? Now there's a question that requires caution. We want to be sure to get that answer exactly right. Because of this, when faced with that question, many will become so careful with their answer that they won't say a thing. They'll try to avoid it, hoping that the question will simply disappear. What we don't often realize is that we don't just answer that question with what we say. Our answer is proclaimed in and through everything that we do and don't do. Our answer is always easy for God to see.

Call to Worship

God says, "I will bring them into the fire; I will refine them like silver and I will test them like gold. They will call on my name and I will answer them."

We call on the name of the Lord as those who have been tested. We have learned to trust. We have learned the faithfulness of God.

Jesus says, "Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of Heaven."

The reason that the world does not know us is that it did not know Him. We are God's children now and what we will be has not yet been revealed.

The book of Hebrews says, "My child, do not regard lightly the discipline of the Lord, for the Lord disciplines those whom He loves.

We rejoice in being the children of God. We give thanks to the Lord for blessings that we recognize and especially for those that we don't.

Confession and Fellowship

Call to Confession Song of Confession (See insert)

Unison Prayer of Confession

O God, we confess that we have wanted our relationship with you to be much easier than it has been. We expect you to approve of us as we are, instead of disciplining us into being something better. We become disappointed when we find that you are not obeying our will instead of rejoicing in the fact that you are blessing us with your will. We assume that the difficulties in our lives mean that you do not care about us, instead of recognizing that you are teaching us your ways. We often assume that we are walking alone when in truth, you have carried us. Please forgive us for assuming that we have nothing left to learn and help us to receive your discipline with humility. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.
