Meditation – As the people followed Moses through the wilderness, they wondered if the Lord was with them or not. God had done remarkable things for them. God had delivered them from slavery by means of great miracles, but now, only a matter of days later, they doubted God's presence because they did not have an abundance of supplies. Sometimes, trusting in God's presence and blessing and love is the only evidence that you have.

Quiet and Personal Confession

Consider this Prayer of Confession:

O God, we confess that we have questioned Your authority. We have spent the freedom that You have secured for us on doubting Your ability. When You have failed to meet our expectations, we have assumed that You are flawed, instead of seeing that You have already done more for us than we could ever imagine. Even though we are Your people, we still fail to see that You are sovereign. We still fail to allow You to occupy the throne. We quite often question You and test You, under the assumption that You still must prove Yourself to us. Please forgive us, as we set ourselves to the goal of trusting You and honoring You with our service and sacrifices. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.

Call To Worship

To You, O Lord, I lift up my soul. O my God, in You, I trust; do not let me be put to shame. Protect me, so that I may live to serve You.

Make me to know Your ways, O Lord; teach me Your paths. Lead me in Your truth, for You are the God of my salvation.

For You, O Lord, I will wait, all day long. Please, be mindful of Your mercy and of Your steadfast love, for they have been from of old.

We will not forget the great things that God has done to set us free, and we will never forget that God has chosen to be merciful to us.

I pray that God would forget our sins and iniquities. I pray that God would wash us clean with the blood of our Lord and Savior.

Good and upright is the Lord! He leads the humble in what is right. We bow down before the Lord in response to all that He is doing.
