Meditation – What is prayer that we should bother with it? What is prayer against things like war? Even if it does anything at all, what in the world should we say to God against such things as violence and injustice? What good will it do? We will pray in the name of Jesus in the faith that our little prayers are effective against the strongest of all evil forces, trusting that God can provide a form of peace that is beyond our own understanding.

Call To Worship

It is my honor and privilege to call all of you to worship the one who is the Good Shepherd. I call all of you to bow down in the presence of the Lord.

We bow down in homage of the one who has led us in paths of righteousness. We bow down because God has restored our souls.

We will walk through dark valleys, but we will fear no evil, for the rod and the staff of the Good Shepherd is our comfort.

Jesus prepares a table for us, right here, in the midst of all that seeks to separate us from God. He anoints our head with oil. Our cup overflows.

Certainly goodness and the love of God will follow us, for all of our days, and we will live in the house of the Lord, forever.

We trust in the guidance of the Good Shepherd. We will trust, even when we don't understand. We trust that He will lead us home.

Invocation

11 a.m. WORSHIP - page 2

*Opening Hymn O Worship The King Hymn 29

Verse 1

O worship the King, all glorious above,
O gratefully sing his
power and his love;
our Shield and Defender,
the Ancient of Days,
pavilioned in splendor
and girded with praise.

Verse 2

O tell of his might, O
sing of his grace,
whose robe is the light,
whose canopy space.
His chariots of wrath the
deep thunderclouds form, and dark is his path on
the wings of the storm.

Verse 3

Thy bountiful care, what tongue can recite?
It breathes in the air, it
shines in the light;
it streams from the hills, it
descends to the plain,
and sweetly distills in
the dew and the rain.

Verse 4

Frail children of dust,
and feeble as frail,
in thee do we trust, nor
find thee to fail;
thy mercies how tender,
how firm to the end,
our Maker, Defender,
Redeemer, and Friend

CONFESSON AND FELLOWSHIP

Call to Confession

Rev. J.D. Georlett

Unison Prayer of Confession

O God, today we pray to You in the same way, and in the same Spirit as Moses did when he prayed to You on behalf of Your people, when they sinned and rebelled against You. Moses prayed that You would be merciful, and that You would turn from Your wrath, and we know that we need the same blessing from You. You have forgiven our sin in the blood of our Lord, and we are humbled by the price that You have paid to set us free. We confess that we have taken our freedom for granted. We still need to learn how to honor You with our worship and with our prayers and with our best gifts. Please teach us the way to give to You all that You deserve. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.

CELEBRATING THE LIVING WORD

Closing Hymn Sweet Hour Of Prayer Hymn 623

Verse 1

Sweet hour of prayer,
sweet hour of prayer,
that calls me from a
world of care,
and bids me at my Father's throne
make all my wants and
wishes known:
in seasons of distress
and grief
my soul has often found relief,
and oft escaped the
tempter's snare
by thy return, sweet
hour of prayer

Verse 2

Sweet hour of prayer,
sweet hour of prayer,
thy wings shall my
petition bear,
to Him whose truth
and faithfulness
engage the waiting
soul to bless;
and since He bids me
seek His face,
believe His word, and
trust His grace,
I'll cast on Him my every care,
and wait for thee, sweet
hour of prayer.
