Meditation – If you found yourself in some sort of prison, or in some form of slavery, it would be natural for you to want to escape. Yet, throughout history, many people in those situations never gave escape a thought at all. In order to want to escape, you have to have a hope. You have to have a dream. In order to put together a plan to escape, and then to actually execute it, you have to believe that you have the ability to be free.

Quiet and Personal Confession

Consider this Prayer of Confession:

O God, we confess that we have been less forgiving than You. We have been less merciful and gracious to others, than You have been to us. Our lives depend upon Your forgiveness, and yet we still think that we are accomplishing something by withholding it from broken relationships. You have every right to reject us, but we confess this sin of stubbornness, in the hope that the reality of what You have done for us on the cross would take root in us, and be fully expressed through the mercy and grace that we share. Please return us to the great action of Your salvation. Please return us to the price that You paid to set us free, so that we may love one another. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.

Call To Worship

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless His Holy name. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not His benefits.

God forgives all of your iniquity. God heals all of your diseases.

God redeems your life, and crowns you with steadfast love and mercy.

The Lord is merciful and gracious; slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. He will not always accuse, or keep His anger forever.

God does not repay us according to our iniquities. As far as the east is from the west, so far God removes our sins from us.

How much should we forgive someone, Peter wondered. As much as seven times? Jesus declared that we should have mercy because we have received mercy.

God has completely forgiven us our debts in the blood of Jesus Christ. Having been freed, we seek to free others to the joy that we have found.
