Meditation – After God brought them through the Red Sea, the people almost immediately started to complain to God and to Moses because they didn't have anything to eat. God fed them with the Bread of Heaven. The people called it "Manna", which means, "What is it?" They called it that because they had no idea what it was. God isn't waiting around for you to understand how, when, or where He is going to take care of you.

Quiet and Personal Confession

Consider this Prayer of Confession:

O God, when we are confronted with the choice to complain to You or trust in You, we have quite often chosen to complain. We have complained because we don't understand what You are doing, while assuming that You owe us an explanation. We have complained because You have treated others differently than us, and we have assumed that Your ways have to obey our regulations. We have complained to You because we feel that we are entitled to Your mercy and grace. We have forgotten that You owe us nothing, and that everything that we receive from You is a gift. Please forgive us for the presumptions that separate us from You. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.

Call To Worship

I will extol You, my God and King, and I will bless Your name forever and ever. Every day I will bless You with the best that I have.

Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised; His greatness is unsearchable. On the glorious splendor of Your majesty, I will meditate.

One generation shall laud the works of the Lord to another. They shall declare Your mighty acts. I will declare God's greatness.

We shall celebrate the fame of God's abundant goodness. We shall sing aloud of God's righteousness. The Lord is abounding in steadfast love.

God's Kingdom is an everlasting kingdom. God's dominion endures throughout all generations. The Lord is faithful in all His words and gracious in all of His deeds.

The Lord is near to all who call on Him. God is near to all who call on Him in truth. My mouth will speak the praise of the Lord forever.
